Mother Veronica
(1823 – 1906)

OUR FOUNDRESS

Mother Veronica (Miss Sophie Leeves, born on October 1, 1823), Foundress of the Sisters of the Apostolic Carmel, Mangalore, Karnataka, India, was deeply religious and highly intellectual, an English woman attracted by Christ, gave her entire life to God. In 1868 the Apostolic Carmel was established in Bayonne, France, and in 1870, in India. Her mission was to educate and empower the women in India.

Bishop B.J. Sullivan S.J.
(1889 – 1970)

OUR FOUNDER

The College was founded in 1940 and is conducted by the Sisters of the Apostolic Carmel, an indigenous Religious Educational Body founded in 1870. Bishop B.J. Sullivan S.J., Patna, a visionary, sought their support to start a College for women in Bihar. Mother Josephine A.C., the then Superior General of the Congregation, responded. Consequently the first College for women was founded in Bihar.

Saint Teresa of Avila
(1515 – 1582)

OUR PATRONESS

Saint Teresa of Avila (Spain), a Carmelite Nun, the Doctor of the Church was one of the noblest ladies of the world. A woman for God and a woman for others, she is the patron saint of Patna Women's College. Her inspirational words are used as the College Anthem.

हे मानव, रूके न कदम बाधाओं से
डरे न मन समस्याओं से, हे मानव।
तुम्हें कुछ भी न घट पाएगा
चिर सुभाग ही मिल जाएगा
तजो माया विनाशकारी
मिले भगवन परम सुखकारी
आस्था तेरी परम सत्य है
और विश्वास तुझपे अटल है
जान लो जगत ये नश्वर है
मात्र ईश्वर ही सदा अचल है

Let nothing disturb thee;
Let nothing dismay thee;
All things pass,
God never changes.
Patience attains
All that it strives for.
He who has God
Finds he lacks nothing.
God alone suffices.

TARK DEBATING SOCIETY

ANNUAL REPORT
2024 – 2025

Coordinator :
Dr. Shahla Rehana
Associate Professor, Department of English
Patna Women's College

Vision:

To cultivate a community of critical thinkers who are well-versed in the art of debate, promoting an ethos where diverse perspectives can be explored and respected.

Mission:

To empower individuals with the skills necessary for effective communication, critical thinking, and respectful discourse. We aim to provide an inclusive platform for students of all backgrounds and identities to engage in intellectual discussions, develop their public speaking abilities, and gain a deeper understanding of current issues and global affairs.

Objectives:

- 1. Accessibility: Ensuring that everyone, regardless of physical or cognitive abilities, can participate fully. This might mean providing materials in different formats or making sure venues are accessible.
- 2. Representation: Making sure diverse groups are represented and heard. It's not just about having a seat at the table but ensuring those voices are genuinely considered and valued.
- 3. Address Bias and Discrimination: Addressing both overt and subtle forms of discrimination that can make people feel excluded. This includes challenging stereotypes and prejudices.
- 4. Cultural Sensitivity: Understanding and respecting different cultural backgrounds and practices. This can help create a more welcoming and inclusive environment for everyone.

1. Edu-Leaders Fellowship Interactive Session in collaboration with JEEVIKA and I-SAKSHAM, Patna

Total No of Participants : 100
Date : 27.09.2024
Venue : Hotel Crown Palace, Boaring Road, Patna

The Social Work Club 'SAMARTH', in collaboration with JEEVIKA and I-SAKSHAM under the P.A.C.E. programme, organized an interactive session titled "Nurturing Young Minds through Edu-Leaders Fellowship." Students actively engaged with Edu-Leaders and explored real-life experiences from grassroots educational contexts. They were introduced to various government fellowship opportunities and learnt how educational challenges can be addressed through local leadership. The session fostered critical thinking, peer learning, and awareness of career paths in development sectors. It also deepened students' understanding of community-based interventions, especially those benefiting adolescent girls in rural Bihar.

2. Celebration of International Day for Older Persons in collaboration with HelpAge India, Patna

Total No of Participants : 144
Date : 01.10.2024
Venue : Sahara Old Age Home, Ranipur, Patna

On the occasion of the International Day for Older Persons, 'SAMARTH' club participated in a workshop focusing on the theme "Towards a Society for All Ages." The event highlighted the importance of intergenerational respect and the need to integrate older citizens into mainstream community life. Through discussions and interactive sessions, students gained insights into social issues faced by the elderly and explored innovative ways to support ageing populations. This initiative nurtured empathy, advocacy skills, and responsibility among students, encouraging them to be inclusive in their social perspectives and proactive in championing age-friendly communities. The student got an opportunity to share their insights with some dignified experts and welfare ministry, govt of Bihar.

3. Inauguration of SAMARTH and Orientation Programme

Total No of Participants : 174
Date : 04.10.2024
Venue : MVEIC, Science Block

The inauguration of the 'SAMARTH' Social Work Club was marked by a dynamic orientation that inspired students to view themselves as changemakers in society. The event underscored values like empathy, perseverance, and social responsibility. A student-led pledge reinforced commitment to community service and ethical leadership. The launch also featured the unveiling of the club's logo—symbolizing a shared vision of empowerment and equity. The orientation helped students internalize their role as social catalysts and offered a platform for collaborative planning of future outreach activities. It served as a strong foundation for participatory and experiential learning.

4. Launch of Substance Abuse Prevention Cell and Wellnest Mental Wellbeing Club

Total No of Participants : 195
Date : 05.10.2024
Venue : B.J. Sullivan Hall, Patna Women's College

'SAMARTH' members participated in the inauguration of the Substance Abuse Prevention Cell under the Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyan. The event focused on raising awareness about substance use and its prevention among youth. Students engaged in an interactive session discussing the causes, impact, and community-based strategies for curbing substance abuse. The unveiling of the cell's logo and a collective pledge reinforced student commitment to leading awareness efforts. The session emphasized peer-led advocacy, early intervention, and the importance of student participation in building a drug-free campus environment.

5. Joy of Giving Week: Dry Ration Distribution

Total No of Participants : 100
Date : 22.10.2024
Venue : Main Building, Patna Women's College

To commemorate Joy of Giving Week, 'SAMARTH' organized a dry ration distribution drive in the adopted slum areas of Patna. Students took the lead in identifying beneficiaries, assembling ration kits, and facilitating respectful distribution. This hands-on experience cultivated logistical planning, teamwork, and direct community engagement. Beyond giving material support, the activity fostered a sense of shared humanity and grounded the importance of service-learning. It was a valuable opportunity for students to understand the realities of food insecurity and the impact of consistent outreach efforts in vulnerable communities.

6. Hygiene Kit Distribution & Menstrual Health Awareness for adolescent girls of slums

Total No of Participants : 130
Date : 25.01.2025
Venue : Department of Social Work, Mother Alyosia Block

'SAMARTH' Club led a targeted outreach programme focused on menstrual health awareness, distributing hygiene kits to adolescent girls in underprivileged localities. Students designed the kits, conducted awareness sessions on menstrual hygiene practices, and initiated open conversations to break taboos around menstruation. This activity promoted health education while empowering both the receivers and the student facilitators. Students enhanced their communication, advocacy, and leadership skills while addressing a critical issue affecting young girls. The experience reinforced the importance of education as a tool for empowerment and encouraged sensitivity to gender-based challenges.

7. Ganga Swachh Maha Kumbh Cleanliness Drive in collaboration with Being Helper Foundation, Patna

Total No of Participants : 170
Date : 23.03.2025
Venue : Marine Drive, J.P. Setu Pool, Patna

SAMARTH actively participated in the Ganga Swachh Maha Kumbh Patna, a major river-cleaning and public awareness campaign. Students were engaged in hands-on waste collection at Digha Ghat, contributing to a 251-hour cleanliness drive that removed over 300 kg of waste. They also led a public awareness initiative at Marine Drive to sensitize citizens about river conservation. This project emphasized environmental responsibility, civic engagement, and teamwork. Through field participation, students developed a deeper understanding of sustainability, waste management systems, and the power of community-led action.

8. World Social Work Day Observance

Total No of Participants : 100
Date : 24.03.2025
Venue : MVEIC, Science Block

To celebrate World Social Work Day, SAMARTH organized an interactive session focused on "Strengthening Intergenerational Solidarity." Students engaged in reflective storytelling and dialogue, exploring how connections across age groups contribute to social cohesion and emotional well-being. The event encouraged participants to value the wisdom of older generations while recognizing their role in building compassionate, resilient societies. It also inspired students to reflect on social justice issues and the broader mission of social work. The format encouraged active participation, thoughtful listening, and the development of a holistic social perspective.

Learning Outcome:

Through its various outreach and awareness activities, 'SAMARTH' Social Work Club helped students to:

- Develop leadership and teamwork skills through real-world engagement.
- Gain practical experience in community service and social responsibility.
- Foster empathy, critical thinking, and a strong sense of civic duty

JAGRITI – THE CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND ETHICS CLUB

ANNUAL REPORT
2024 – 2025

Coordinator :
Mr. Adweetiya Sinha
Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science
Patna Women's College

Vision:

The club envisions shaping a generation of enlightened women who are intellectually discerning and morally steadfast, embodying the true spirit of the Indian Constitution. Our vision is to foster a campus culture where justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity are not merely ideals, but lived experiences, empowering women to become architects of a more humane, inclusive and democratic India.

Mission:

The mission of the club is to promote awareness of constitutional values like justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity while empowering women through a deeper understanding of their rights and duties. The club nurtures ethical leadership grounded in integrity and accountability, fosters civic responsibility and active citizenship, and provides a platform for intellectual discourse, critical thinking, and debate on contemporary issues. Committed to social justice and inclusivity, it seeks to challenge discrimination, uphold human dignity, and inspire students to contribute meaningfully towards building a more just, democratic and humane India.

Objectives:

- 1. Organize Educational Activities and Programs: To conduct workshops, seminars, and guest lectures on constitutional law, ethics, and related topics, engaging experts from various fields.
- 2. Develop Educational Resources for Promoting Constitutional Literacy: To create and distribute educational materials, such as booklets, newsletters, and online content, to enhance understanding of constitutional values and professional ethics.
- 3. Engagement with Legal and Ethical Issues: To organize activities like debates, mock trials, mock parliaments, Mock United Nations, essay competitions and quizzes that focus on current legal and ethical issues, encouraging students to think critically about the role of the Constitution in everyday life.
- 4. Engage in Community Outreach: To initiate community service projects that reflect the club's commitment to ethical behavior and constitutional values.
- 5. Promote Interdisciplinary Learning : To collaborate with other student clubs, NGOs academic departments and student organizations to explore the intersection of constitutional values with various disciplines by organizing events that promote constitutional values and ethical practices, particularly in addressing women's issues.
- 6. Leadership Development: To identify and nurture leadership qualities in students by involving them in the planning and execution of club activities, ensuring they are prepared for ethical leadership roles in the future.

3. Debate Competition on 'Is Gandhi's Idea of Trusteeship Still Relevant?'

Date : 27.09.2024
Time : 12:00 Noon – 2:00 P.M.
Venue : Room 402, Science Block

JAGRITI- The Constitutional Values and Ethics Club in collaboration with Department of Political Science celebrated Gandhi Jayanti from 25th September to 1st October 2024.

The Debate fostered a critical discussion on the applicability of Gandhi's economic philosophy of trusteeship in the modern world, encouraging critical thinking about ethical wealth distribution and social responsibility in today's world. They help students explore alternatives to materialistic capitalism by reflecting on values like compassion, sustainability, and justice. Such discussions promote awareness of socio-economic inequalities and inspire civic engagement. Engaging with Gandhian ideas in this way makes students more informed, reflective, and socially conscious citizens.

The competition was judged by Dr. Priyanka, Assistant Professor, Department of History, and Miss Prachi Raj, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science.

On National Voter's Day 2024, a group of 65 students from the Political Science Department (3rd Year) of Patna Women's College (Autonomous) Patna University, under the guidance of Prachi Raj, Assistant Professor, Political Science Department, visited the Secretariat, Patna. The event, which commemorated the 14th celebration of National Voter's Day since its inception in 2011, marked an important occasion in recognizing the contributions of the Election Commission of India, established in 1950. The theme of the day, "Vote Jaisa Kuchh Nahi, Vote Zaroor Kareng Hum" (Nothing is like a vote; we will definitely vote), aimed to raise awareness about the importance of voting and inspire the youth to become active participants in the democratic process and inspire others.

Objectives of the Visit

- To enhance the students' understanding of the electoral process.
- To raise awareness regarding the importance of voter participation.
- To provide an opportunity for students to interact with key government officials and learn from their experiences.

The event was graced by several distinguished dignitaries, including:

- Shri Amrit Lal Meena, IAS, Chief Secretary of Bihar
- Shri H.R. Srinivas, IAS, Chief Electoral Officer of Bihar
- Shri Madhav Kumar Singh, IAS
- Shri Mithilesh Kumar Sahu
- Shri Ashok Priyadarshi, Deputy CEO of Bihar
- Shri Mayank Warwade, IAS
- Dr. Chandrashekhar Singh, IAS
- Dr. B. Rajendra, IAS, ACS, Patna, Bihar

Key Highlights of the Event

- Address by Shri H.R. Srinivas, IAS

The event commenced with a thought-provoking address by Shri H.R. Srinivas, IAS, the Chief Electoral Officer of Bihar. Shri Srinivas shared invaluable insights into the electoral process and his personal experiences managing elections in Bihar. He mentioned that 11 lakh youths who crossed the age of 18 and were registered for the elections last year, but only approximately 50% of them participated in the elections. He underscored the importance of fact-checking to combat misinformation and encouraged the students to rely on the Election Commission of India's official website for accurate information. His detailed account of the electoral procedures helped the students gain a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics involved in conducting free and fair elections.

- Encouraging Address by Chief Guest Shri Amrit Lal Meena, IAS

The Chief Secretary of Bihar, Shri Amrit Lal Meena, addressed the students, emphasizing the importance of individual contributions to the success of democracy. He emphasized the transformational changes in the electoral process, particularly highlighting the increase in women's participation, where women voted more than men in the last election. He expressed immense pride in the Election Commission of Bihar's efforts to enhance voter accessibility and transparency, making the process more inclusive. He also encouraged the youth to actively engage in democracy, stressing their pivotal role in shaping the future of the nation, and acknowledged the significant strides made to ensure a more empowered electorate.

- Recognition of Excellence

One of the key moments of the event was the Recognition of Excellence segment, where IAS officers, election officials, and support staff from various districts of Bihar were honored for their outstanding work during the previous elections. These individuals were celebrated for their dedication and commitment to ensuring the integrity and transparency of the election process. This recognition underscored the importance of teamwork and the crucial role that civil servants and election workers play in maintaining a fair and efficient electoral system.

- Oath Ceremony

Following the speeches, an Oath Ceremony was held, during which all participants, including the students and dignitaries, took an oath to uphold the principles of democracy and to actively participate in future elections. This symbolic act served as a reminder of the responsibility that every citizen holds in ensuring the health of the nation's democratic processes.

The visit to the Secretariat, Patna, provided the students of Patna Women's College with a unique opportunity to engage with key figures involved in the electoral system. The event not only deepened their understanding of the electoral process but also inspired them to be more involved and responsible as citizens. The motivational speeches, along with the recognition of excellence, emphasized the importance of individual contributions to a thriving democracy. The students left the event feeling empowered and committed to being proactive participants in the democratic process. The students expressed their sincere gratitude to the organizers and dignitaries for offering such an insightful and enriching experience on National Voter's Day 2024.

3. OJASWINI-2025 (Women's Day Celebration)

Day 1 : In House Events

Event Report : Guest Lecture on Legal Rights for Women by the Internal Complaints Committee of Patna Women's College in collaboration with WE-PWC Gender Cell and Club

Date : 06.03.2024

Venue : B.J. Sullivan Hall, Patna Women's College

The Internal Complaints Committee of Patna Women's College (Autonomous) in collaboration with We-PWC Gender Cell and Club, on March 6, 2025 organized an insightful session on Legal Rights for Women. The session was conducted by Ms. Sugandha Sinha, Assistant Professor of Law at Chanakya National Law University, Patna. During her address, Ms. Sinha highlighted various legal concerns surrounding gender rights, drawing attention to cases reported in print media where individuals faced extreme consequences due to acts of cruelty. She noted that while instances of women facing cruelty often gain prominence, cases where men experience similar treatment are comparatively less discussed. She emphasized that the misuse of legal provisions by women tends to become a global issue, reinforcing the necessity for a balanced approach to gender justice. She elaborated on the historical legacy of patriarchy, where men have traditionally held dominant roles in society, and discussed how power structures are often inherently masculine. The session was highly interactive, with students actively engaging in discussions. Ms. Sugandha Sinha responded to their queries with clarity, fostering an enriching dialogue on gender rights and legal frameworks.

Date	:	22.11.2024
Venue	:	B. J. Sullivan Hall.
No. Beneficiaries	:	Vigyan Club members and all the semester 4 students of Physics, Botany, Zoology and Chemistry.
Resource Persons	:	Prof. Seema Sharma, PG Head, Department of Physics Prof. Louisa Reissig from the Department of Physics, Freie University, Berlin, Germany

The event commenced with a welcome address and introduction of the theme by Dr. Shobha Srivastava, Dean of the Faculty of Science, Patna Women's College. She emphasized the significance of advanced materials in scientific research and their applications across disciplines

In the first session keynote address on the topic "Uses and Characterization of Materials" was delivered by Prof. Seema Sharma, PG Head, Department of Physics, Patliputra University. She shed light on the diverse applications of novel materials and the importance of their structural and chemical characterization in scientific and industrial fields. Second session featured a special address by Prof. Louisa Reissig from the Department of Physics, Freie University, Berlin, Germany. Her talk, titled "Borrowing Nature's Materials and Strategies in the Design of Future Photodetectors," provided the audience with fascinating insights into biomimicry and its role in advancing photonic technologies.

The workshop concluded in the third session with a hands-on training on XRD data acquisition and analysis using ORIGIN software, conducted collaboratively by Prof. Louisa Reissig and Prof. Seema Sharma. This interactive session provided students with practical exposure to modern tools for material characterization, further igniting their curiosity and enthusiasm for research.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Kavita Verma, Head of the Department of Physics, Patna Women's College. The event was seamlessly anchored by Dr. Urvashi Sinha, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany, who ensured smooth coordination throughout the program.

3. One-day workshop on Crystallography: Hands-on-Training on X-ray diffraction

- Date : 11.02.2025
- Venue : B. J. Sullivan Hall.
- No. Beneficiaries : Vigyan Club members and all the students of UG and PG of Physics. Three PG students from A.N. College, Pataliputra University, Patna
- Resource Person : Dr. Judith Shackleton, University of Manchester.

In the first session students learnt about Crystallography, the crystal lattice, Bravais lattice, Bragg's law and the basics of X-ray diffraction. Dr. Riekhshika Sanwari, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, welcomed the guests with her address.

The second session started at 12 pm with the Introduction to X-ray Powder Diffraction and preparation of samples, the precautions and the X-ray Powder Diffraction of some of the crystals. The session was insightful. The students achieved the ability to analyse previously unanalysable crystal types and more understanding on how to use XRD.

At the end vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Chandni Kumari, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, Patna Women's College. The session was attended by the faculty members of Department of Physics, Patna Women's College, Autonomous namely Dr. Rohit Singh, Mr. Dharmendra Rai, Dr. Lalit Kumar Sharma and Dr. Manishi Puja and a few members of A N College, Dr. Ruchi Rashmi, Dr. Md. 2. Hands-on Training in Canva

Number of Participants : 40

The Commerce and Management Club, Kaizen, of Patna Women's College (Autonomous), Patna University, successfully organized a hands-on training session on Canva on 21.01.2025. The primary objective of the event was to equip students with essential digital design skills, crucial for today's professional and academic environments. Canva, a user-friendly graphic design platform, was chosen for its accessibility and versatility, particularly for students from non-design backgrounds.

Programme Overview

The session was coordinated by Mr. Gautam Saurabh, Coordinator of Kaizen and Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, and Ms. Yosha Singh, Co-Coordinator of Kaizen and Assistant Professor, Department of Advertising and Marketing Management. The training was attended and supported by faculty members Ms. Sagarika and Ms. Neha, Assistant Professors from the Department of Commerce, who appreciated the relevance of design in business communication and encouraged students to develop these skills.

Key Highlights of the Session

- Introduction to Canva Interface: Participants were given a live walkthrough of the Canva dashboard, exploring the range of templates and features available.
- Template Customization: Students learned to personalize templates for different needs such as posters, resumes, presentations, business cards, and social media posts.
- Hands-on Exercises: The training followed a step-by-step model, allowing students to practice designing real-time under expert guidance.
- Branding & Visual Identity: The session included a segment on branding fundamentals—such as choosing the right colors, typography, and logo placements—to help students understand how design reflects brand identity.
- Use of Canva in Academics: Practical applications were explored, including making attractive PowerPoint presentations, event posters, and infographics for project reports.

Feedback and Conclusion

The participants provided overwhelmingly positive feedback, appreciating the interactive and practical nature of the training. Many expressed interests in participating in future sessions focused on advanced Canva features or similar design tools. The event successfully achieved its goal of empowering students with design thinking and technical competence. It also aligned with the college's broader mission of fostering holistic development and digital readiness among its students.

Patna Women's College

Present Coordinator :

Ms. Anisha Singh

Assistant Professor, Department of English
Patna Women's College

Vision:

Our vision is to develop the idea of social justice and equality among members of society through theatre practices, while encouraging students to actively participate in outreach activities that support these social changes. Through performances, we also seek to celebrate unsung heroes and bring their stories to light, inspiring awareness, empathy, and positive transformation in the community.

Mission:

Our mission is to promote social equality by using theatre as a powerful medium to question, reflect, and inspire change within society. At the same time, we aim to enhance the theatrical skills of students by engaging them in a wide range of theatre-related activities that foster creativity, confidence, and critical thinking. Through this dual approach, theatre becomes not only a platform for artistic expression but also a means of social awareness, enabling students to grow as performers and as socially responsible individuals who can contribute to building a more just and empathetic world.

Objectives:

1. Equip students for theatrical interventions that address contemporary social issues and challenges.
2. Develop students' skills by providing exposure to all stages of theatre production, from scripting to performance.
3. Foster a sense of community and camaraderie through collaborative group activities.
4. Enhance performance abilities through workshops on voice projection and other theatre techniques.
5. Encourage active participation in scriptwriting, acting, and theatre productions.
6. Engage students in outreach activities that use theatre to raise social awareness and promote community involvement.

Vision:

The vision of Natraj Nritya Club is to establish itself as a cultural cornerstone of the college, where dance is celebrated not only as an art form but also as a way of life. We aspire to create an inclusive and vibrant community where students from diverse academic and cultural backgrounds find a shared space to express themselves through rhythm, movement, and creativity. Our vision is to nurture a generation of students who are confident, disciplined, and culturally aware, while also encouraging them to see dance as a bridge that connects traditions with modern creativity. By blending classical, folk, and contemporary dance styles, the club envisions to become a platform that represents both the rich heritage of Indian culture and the dynamic spirit of youth.

Mission:

The mission of Natraj Nritya Club is to provide students with opportunities to develop their skills, creativity, and confidence through structured learning, performances, and community engagement. Our mission is rooted in the belief that dance is a powerful tool of personal growth, cultural expression, and social awareness. Specifically, our mission is to provide a supportive platform for students to explore, practice, and excel in diverse dance forms, including classical, folk, and contemporary styles. To organize regular workshops, seminars, and masterclasses with professionals that enhance the artistic, technical, and cultural understanding of members. To promote discipline, commitment, and teamwork through regular rehearsals and participation in competitions and stage performances. To integrate social messages and awareness campaigns into performances, making dance a medium for meaningful expression and positive social change. To celebrate cultural festivals and traditions through dance, fostering respect for India's cultural diversity while also welcoming global influences.

Objectives:

1. Skill Development: Members can improve their dance techniques, rhythm, and coordination through regular practice and workshops.
2. Confidence Building: Performing in front of peers and participating in competitions helps students build self-esteem and overcome stage fright.
3. Social Connections: The club fosters friendships and a sense of community, allowing students to meet others with similar interests and collaborate.
4. Creativity and Expression: Dance encourages self-expression, allowing students to explore their creativity and communicate emotions through movement.
5. Discipline and Commitment: Regular rehearsals and performances instill a sense of discipline and commitment, valuable skills that can be applied to other areas of life.
6. Cultural Awareness: Exposure to various dance styles promotes appreciation for diverse cultures and traditions.
7. Physical Fitness: Dance is a great way to stay active, enhancing physical health and overall well-being.

It seeks to provide an environment where students can discover and nurture their musical potential, appreciate the richness of India's classical, folk, and contemporary traditions, and explore global genres with equal enthusiasm. The Club aims to cultivate a lifelong passion for music as a means of self-expression, emotional well-being, and social harmony. By promoting creativity, inclusivity, and cultural preservation while embracing modern influences, the Music Club aspires to integrate music into diverse aspects of student life, including service-learning, mental wellness, and community engagement. Ultimately, its vision is to establish the Music Club as a space that not only enhances individual talent but also builds a harmonious community where music contributes to holistic growth, unity, and the celebration of life.

Mission:

The mission of the Music Club is to create an inclusive and dynamic platform where students can freely explore, learn, and showcase their musical talents. It aims to foster creativity and self-expression while encouraging interdisciplinary collaboration by integrating music with the academic, cultural, and social initiatives of the college. Through active participation in musical activities, the club seeks to instill essential values of teamwork, discipline, and leadership, preparing students for holistic growth. At the same time, the Music Club is dedicated to preserving and promoting the rich heritage of Indian classical, folk, and contemporary music, while also embracing and celebrating diverse global musical traditions, thereby nurturing cultural appreciation and unity through the universal language of music.

Objectives:

1. Organize regular practice sessions, workshops, and performances to hone students' musical skills.
2. Conduct events such as competitions, concerts, and collaborative programs with other clubs.
3. Celebrate national and cultural occasions through musical presentations that foster patriotism and community spirit.
4. Encourage students to compose original music and experiment with diverse genres.
5. Provide opportunities for participation in inter-college and external cultural events.
6. Support the college's vision of Whole Person Education by integrating music into well-being, service-learning, and creativity-driven initiatives.
